Mind-Blowing Triad™

Liberal capitalism Communism Fascism

Note: This triad should be addressed from the standpoint of economics, since the reading for this week pertains precisely to this issue.

Awe-Inspiring, Awe-Invoking & Awe-Extracting Questions

1. What were the prospects for the restoration of the free market and laissez-faire economics in the aftermath of World War I? How did government promises to lower-class Europeans (workers & peasants) inhibit the reintroduction of the free market?
2. What role did the United States play in European economic affairs after World War I?
3. In what ways was the Soviet system an economic success when viewed in the 1930s? At what cost was such success attained?
4. What role did planning and state control play in the different kinds of economies in Europe in the 30s?
5. Was there a "fascist economics"? What were the main economic practices of fascist states?
